WEEKDAYS

DAILY MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER IN ENGLISH AND LATIN
Morning Prayer (10 am) and Evening Prayer (6 pm) on weekdays use the beautiful language of the Book of Common Prayer. On Wednesdays we use the 1560 version in Latin (a parallel English translation is supplied so that all can follow it). On other days we use the 1662 English edition, along with the 1611 Authorised (King James) version of the Bible. These daily services last about 20 minutes and take place on most weekdays, but please check the latest details at www.dow.cam.ac.uk/chapelcalendar.

PIZZA AND JOHN’S GOSPEL: MONDAYS AT 6 PM
Each Monday evening at 6 pm, there is free pizza in the antechapel, followed by a talk given by the Chaplain on a section of John’s Gospel. There is then an opportunity for questions and discussion. All are very welcome, and no previous knowledge of John’s Gospel is needed.

SUNDAY SERVICES AND MUSIC

The Chapel celebrates the services of the Church of England, while being open and hospitable to all. Members of College, guests and visitors are all very welcome, from any religious background or none. Don’t worry if this is all new to you. There will be a service booklet that explains what’s going on, we’ll help you to find a good seat if you’re looking lost, and the Chaplain will be delighted to answer any questions. There are spoken words and sung hymns which you can join in with if you would like to, or you can just sit back and enjoy the spiritual atmosphere, beautiful music and inspiring sense of history, all of which help to put life in a healthy perspective.

Sunday evening services of Choral Evensong are a great Cambridge tradition, using words which have changed very little since 1559. The Choir sings and the Chapel is lit by candles. Part of the tradition is that gowns are worn by those who have them. There’s free sherry and orange juice at the end, and some then go on to Formal Hall with the Choir. To book to dine with our group, please email the Chaplain by the preceding Thursday. Sunday morning services of Holy Communion are simpler occasions without music, providing about 35 minutes of gentle reflection and prayer. The Chaplain preaches a brief homily, and we serve free coffee and biscuits at the end.

Pizza and John’s Gospel
Michaelmas Mondays at 6 pm in the antechapel

John’s Gospel is distinctively different from the other three Gospels, in its style and structure and in its bold presentation of the human and divine identity of Jesus. It’s famous both for its philosophical depth and for its spiritual vision, and treasured for its inspiring presentation of Jesus’ teachings. Whatever you believe, you’re welcome to join in this exploration of one of the most significant texts in the history of the world.

Free pizza will be served at 6 pm, then the Chaplain will give a talk about one section of John. There will then be time for questions and discussion, all finishing by 7.30 pm.

Each week will make sense on its own, so there’s no problem if you just want to dip into part of the course. Arriving late for any session or leaving early is also fine.
