

DOWNING COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE

College Teaching Associateships 2017

The Governing Body of Downing College, Cambridge, invites applications for appointment to a number of College Teaching Associateships starting on 1st October 2017 for one year in the first instance, with the possibility of renewal subject to receipt of satisfactory reports. The College wishes to secure undergraduate supervision in the fields of Philosophy (core Part IA and Part IB papers), Natural Sciences (Animal Biology, Evolution and Behaviour), Economics (Part IIA and IIB papers) and Human, Social and Political Sciences (Social Anthropology).

Applications are particularly welcomed from postdoctoral researchers at an early stage in their career. A successful candidate will be elected as a Bye-Fellow of the College if they do not already hold a Fellowship or Bye-Fellowship at another College.

Successful candidates will be expected to provide up to 60 hours of supervision of Downing students over the course of the academic year, for which payment will be made at the intercollegiate rate for supervisions. Access to parking in the College when on College business will be provided, and generous lunching and dining privileges.

Applications must be submitted online by Monday 24 April 2017 via the link https://app.casc.cam.ac.uk/fas_live/dowpcta.aspx

Candidates must submit a CV and statement of tenure of their current position as part of their online application. The names of two referees, who will be contacted automatically to provide references by Wednesday 26 April 2016, will also be required. If you have any questions about the application process please email: supervisions@dow.cam.ac.uk.

The appointment will be conditional upon the candidate providing satisfactory evidence of eligibility to work in the UK in the capacity offered, together with proof of entry clearance/leave to remain for the duration of the tenure.
