

DOWNING COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE

THE ALF MONK GRADUATE STUDENTSHIP IN ENGLISH

The Governing Body invites applications for the Alf Monk Graduate Studentship in English. This Studentship is supported by the Alfred Monk Fund established in memory of Alfred R H Monk (1956) and his achievements. Alf Monk, who died in 2012, studied English at Downing under F R Leavis and was greatly influenced by him.

One Studentship worth £6,000 for the 2017/2018 academic year is offered by Downing College.

The award of a Studentship is conditional upon the recipient becoming a member of Downing College if not already a member. Applicants may re-apply in subsequent years.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applications must be made online:

https://app.casc.cam.ac.uk/fas_live/alfmonk.aspx

The online process requires the completion of a personal and academic record section, a brief questionnaire, upload of a one page CV, statement of research (not exceeding 600 words) and one piece of academic writing (not exceeding 3000 words) by 12.00 noon on Monday 24 July 2017. In addition, the names of two senior persons acquainted with the applicant's academic work should be provided. References must be submitted online by 12.00 noon on Monday 31 July 2017. For further information please email studentships@dow.cam.ac.uk