

DOWNING COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE

Shortly before you arrive in College a bill will be sent to your Cambridge email address. This bill must be paid before Wednesday 12 October and includes the following elements:

For Undergraduates:

Deposit (see below): £400

Payment of first Term's Rent (see below): £1,360 to £2,060

and

If you are self-funding and/or liable for University Fees at the overseas rate, payment of all Annual Fees (see below) payable to the College and the University.

For Postgraduates:

Deposit (see below): £300

Payment of first quarter's Rent (see below): £1,768 to £2,860

and

(a) If you are self-funding at the Home rate, the first installment of all Annual Fees payable to the College and the University or

(b) If you are self-funding at the International rate, payment of all Annual Fees due to the College and the University

Further details of the above payments are as follows:

The Deposit

This deposit, which the College requires you to pay, is repayable and will be credited against the final bill in the final year of your course. It is payable by all students including those living out of College accommodation.

The Rent

The rent due will depend on the room that you have been allocated. Rooms for first year students are allocated by the College, taking into account where possible their stated preference for a room in one of two general categories. Once your room has been allocated, you will then be told the rent. All the rents are inclusive of heating charges and most of the rooms are centrally heated. Bed linen may be hired for use in College rooms. The Housekeeping Office will provide prices on application, please email for further information. Laundry charges are additional. Student guest rooms may be booked in advance for visitors to Cambridge subject to availability (charge of £40 per night for 2022/23). More expensive Guest Rooms are sometimes available, e.g. for visiting parents. Graduate rents are due on a quarterly basis.

The £9,250 Tuition Fee

The College collects, on behalf of the University, the annual contribution of £9,250 towards the cost of tuition. This fee is due in three installments payable termly in advance on a 25/25/50% basis. For Home students, a tuition fee loan may be taken out for all or part of the amount of the fee, and this amount will be paid directly to the College. The Student Loan Company will issue all students with a document entitled 'University or College Payment Advice 2022/2023'. Please send us a copy of this document as soon as you receive it, and in any case not later than Friday 26 August 2022 so that you are not billed for the full tuition contribution. Subsequent installments, together with all other items charged to your account during the previous term, including rent payable in advance will be due on Wednesday 18 January 2023 and Wednesday 26 April 2023.

Undergraduate Annual Fees

Those students not in receipt of a tuition fee loan, who are responsible for paying their own University Composition (Tuition) fees at the Home/EU rate are asked to pay to the College by Wednesday 12 October the first of the three installments. Subsequent payments, along with all amounts charged to your account during the previous term will be due on Wednesday 18 January 2023 and on Wednesday 26 April 2023.

Students paying fees at the International rate are also required to pay all University and College fees to the College by Wednesday 12 October as follows:

- 1 Composition fees (tuition fees). Payable to the University and collected on its behalf by the College. Please see the University Composition Fees document for further information.
- 2 College Fee. Payable to the College in addition to the above.

Privately-Funded and International Undergraduate and Affiliated Students	£10,365
