Cancellation and Refund Policy

Changes to the Programme
Downing College will seek to deliver the Summer School in accordance with the description set out on the Downing Summer School web page. However, there may be situations in which it is desirable or necessary for the College to make changes in course provision, either before or after enrolment. The College reserves the right to:

a. make reasonable changes to the timetable or academic staff;
b. make reasonable changes to the content and syllabus
c. cancel any of the pathways on offer should they be undersubscribed. In the unlikely event of this situation arising, participants will be advised on the best alternative subject for their course requirements.

Cancellation by you
If you cancel your place on the Downing College Summer School, you should be aware that you will not be entitled to a refund, except in exceptional circumstances, at the discretion of the College / Summer School Co-ordinator. If a refund is made an administration fee would be charged.

Cancellation by us
Where there are good reasons to do so Downing College may cancel the Summer School by giving you notice in writing at any time before the course is due to start. The College will refund all fees paid by you.
